

Outline

Title: 'Tolerance is not the only way to a peaceful society.'

1. Introduction

Thesis statement: While tolerance undoubtedly is vital for societal morality, contributes significantly in the creation of a peaceful society. It is imperative to recognize that unity, discipline, justice and the welfare of citizens are equally essential factors to foster peace within a community.

2. Tolerance alongwith other morals promote a peaceful society

3. How various societal values pave way to ~~a~~ peace and prosperity in a society: (Thesis)

- a- Unity and cooperation among individuals promotes conflict resolution.
- b- Discipline being a crucial factor which influences shared goals.
- c- Justice leads to progress and equitable distribution of rights.
- d- Human development for welfare of citizens.
- e- Ensuring security and safety of citizens.
- f- Encouraging education and awareness among masses-

g- Enhancing civic engagement (in governance).

4. How tolerance as an individual factor promotes harmony in society? (Antithesis)

a- It Tolerance brings peace by resisting violence.

b- Promotes rational decision making.

c- Fosters teamworking!

d- Perpetuates freedom of Expression.

e- Cohesion in public opinion.

5. Tolerance as a sole factor cannot bring peace, it works in collaboration with other morals and values. (Synthesis)

a- ~~x~~ Countering violence requires mutual cooperation of unity and tolerance.

b- ~~No~~ Rationality cannot be obtained utterly, every decision incorporates emotions.

c- Teamworking involves compatibility and strong communication.

d- Freedom of expression can invite negative propoganda / narrative building.

e- Diverse public opinion can promote conflict and discord.

6. Conclusion