

Gender Equality is a myth

1) Introduction :-

Thesis statement :

Gender equality is a myth as gender equality cannot be achieved until all three genders - male, female, and transgenders - have equal opportunities and rights in a society.

2) How gender equality is a myth :-

- 2.1) differential treatment in history
- 2.2) women's fight for equality
- 2.3) Societal exclusion of transgenders.
- 2.4) Stratification of society on the basis of gender
- 2.5) Economic inequalities
- 2.6) Gender disparities in politics
- 2.7) Gender disparities in education
- 2.8) Gender disparities in health
- 2.9) Differential Impact of disasters on genders

3) How gender equality can be achieved :-

- 3.1) Changing societal norms through consciousness raising
- 3.2) Advocacy through social media campaigns & media
- 3.3) Providing equal opportunities in economy
- 3.4) Educational empowerment
- 3.5) Political empowerment
- 3.6) Providing healthcare facilities
- 3.7) Gender-responsive facilities - policy making.

Date: _____

4 Conclusion:-

Case study of Iceland which is at the top in ranking of gender gap report 2024 by World Economic Forum.