Title: Treatment of Modern Educationist
with the children.

The modern educationist prefers not to engage in the activities of children. They avoid enjoying their company. By showing close affection with them like they do for their pets, can make the children respond <sup>more</sup> positively. Children will not appreciate their teachers if they ~~only~~ learn social behaviors only to benefit their teachers in future.

Those whose ~~only~~ only motive is to solve their students' problems ~~with~~ are much admired by their students. However, it is not possible for the over-worked teachers. They are bound to show their devotion. They must spend only two hours a day with them ~~witho~~

Moreover, without strict-disciplines students became exhausted. ~~But~~ Imposing strict rules is also not a rational choice. Therefore, an ideal decision is that teachers need to show close affection with children. Hence, no rules can replace that.
