

Q: Brainstorm the following topic, make outline and thesis:

"Do Pakistani Women have equal Chances as Men?"

Brain Storming:

Equal Chances	Lack of equal Chances
→ Right to vote	→ Political representation
→ Education	→ Workforce representation
→ Constitutional rights	→ Land ownership
→ Business and entrepreneurship	→ Marriage & family
→ Health care	→ Safety & security
	→ Stereotyping & bias

OUTLINE:

(1) INTRODUCTION:

While Pakistani women have made significant progress in various fields of life, they still face significant barriers to achieving equal chances as men particularly in political representation, economic opportunities etc, due to deeply ingrained cultural and societal norms, despite the country's legal framework and empowerment initiatives.

(2) EQUAL CHANCES

(2) Areas of EQUAL CHANCES:

2.1) Right to vote: women have same right as men.

2.2) Education: Women have equal access to education
Co-ed schools, women's universities, literacy programs

2.3) Constitutional Rights: Women have equal rights under the constitutions. Legal protections, court cases upholding women rights.

2.4) Business and Entrepreneurship: women can start and run their own businesses. Successful women entrepreneurs

2.5) Healthcare: women have equal access to health care reproductive healthcare, maternal care health education

(3) Areas of UNEQUAL CHANCES: (Rebuttle)

3.1) Political representation: women are underrepresented in politics. Low percentage of women in parliament, lack of women leadership positions

3.2) Work force Participation: women face barriers to enter workforce, gender-based discriminations, job opportunities.

3.3) Land Ownership: women face discrimination in inheriting property. Male relative taking control of family property, limited access to land ownership.

3.4) Marriage & Family: women face pressure to have children and marriage. limited autonomy in making life choices, societal expectations.

3.5) Safety & Security: face higher risks of gender based violence, domestic violence, sexual harassment, limited access to justice.

(4) Conclusion:

---