

CSS 2020 Translation

Every nation of the world has its educational system according to its temperament which formulates and achieve national and communal goals. And the nation remains proactive for the desired goals. Therefore, the educational system of any nation is such all encompassing system due to which the mental capabilities of the individual rise and helps in shaping their character. The educational system train the individual in such a way that they change the fate of the nation.

CSS 2020

To break the ice

While every one was sitting silent in the gathering, Ali break the ice and started telling everyone about the horrific incident he met last year.

Nip in the bud

Nipping evil in the bud is a better strategy than to witness its repercussions.

For good

Ayesha left the city for good and shifted to her hometown.

Keep up appearances

Nowadays a lot of married couples are keeping up the appearances for the sake of their children.

Prima facie

The theft was prima facie proved against him in the court by a CCTV footage.