Jack: Hello, Swaxup! Swatting away as usual.
Come out, man; shut up your old books, & come
& have a game of tennis.

Swaxup: I am sorry I cannot do that, Jack.
The examination is drawing near, & I want every hour I can get for study.

Jack: Oh! Hang all examinations! I do not worry about mine. What is the use of them, any way?

Swaxup: Well, you can't get a degree if you don't pass the examination; and I have set my heart on being a graduate.

Jack: And pray what good will graduation do you? You may get a clerkship in a govt office; but that's all, & there are hundreds of fellows who have got their degrees, & are never getting jobs of any sort.

Swaxup: That may be so; but I am not studying so much to pass my examination & obtain my degree,
as to store my mind with knowledge and develop my intellectual faculties.
