Unfortunately, we often miss a basic school lesson.

Every big task consist of several small ones ; done precisely and perfectly. As a nation, we actually need to learn the art of breaking down our monstrous goals into small accomplishable task.

It will reduce frustration ; anxiety ; depression in society, and embroachment for the government machinery too. As they do not have to depend their unkept promises.

Every decade brings many circumstances that are not admired by anyone but it has to be accepted the way it is. Sometimes such things happens, for instance, nature wants to test us and put many situations in front of us in which we don't have any concern. However, we also have not any relation with them. But it has to become a part of our lives. The same is happening currently. Each decade brings some changes along with it which were usually new in passed decades. The innate knowledge has given prosperity to humans which is a trash of its financial and academic progress. Nature provides us a fruite. Similarly, it also make us bound to dispose off the residuals properly. If this donot happen, it will result in contaminating our environment.
