- Q. No. 2. How the reform movement of Shaikh Ahmad Sirhindi influenced the history of Muslim India? (20)

Q. No 2

1. Introduction:

"Shaikh Ahmad Sirhindi was one of the best reformers in the history of India before Shah Waliullah" (Ahmad Saeed) Shaikh Ahmad Sirhindi who was born in 1556-1624 was the true reformer. He influenced the muslims of India numerously. He brought tremendous reforms in the Mughal powers such as two nations theory, Wadat ul wajud concept criticised and described Wadat ul-Shud, impose Jizya, exposed the ~~Deep-E-Gah~~ of Akbar so on and so forth. Therefore, Shaikh Ahmad Sirhindi is considered one of the best reformers in the history of India.

2. Background of the India before Shaikh Ahmad Sirhindi:

The Muslim Empire was influenced by the Hindus and Marathies. In the royal courts Hindus were enjoying high positions, emperor married to Hindus' princesses. In the palaces Hindus wives were worshiping, ban on cow slaughter, masjids were demolished, temples were under construction. Also, Jazid were avoided, no tax was collected from Hindus and muslims were confused. In scholars and Sufis. Moreover, Deen-e-Elahe of Akber already spoiled the superiority of Islam.

3. Reform movement of the Shaikh Ahmad and its influence:

1. Emphasis on Oneness of God:

Shaikh Ahmad pushed the muslims to believe in the oneness of God. According to James Wyndham in his one of prominent books "A Brief History of Pakistan" the Hindus influenced the muslims tremendously. In the rule of Akbar, Muslim used to believe in Wadat ul wajud means God is present in every aspect. Shaikh emphasised on Wadat ul shud means God does not exist in everything.

2. Re-impose Jazyia:

Jazyia far or known as defence far was avoided against non-muslims in the Islamic state.

Jahangir later imposed the Jazyia on Hindus after struggles by Shaikh Ahmad.

Use elaborate, self explanatory and relevant headings

3. Two nation theory:

Shaikh Ahmad proposed two ~~not~~ nation theory. According to Ahmad Saeed an author of "Treks to Pakistan." Muslim rulers married Hindu Queens, allowed Hindus to enjoy high positions in the empire. Shikh Ahmad proposed two nation theory that ascribed that muslims and Hindus were two different nations and civilizations. Thus, the muslim rulers should distance themselves from Hindus in every walk of life.

4. Addressed ban on Cows:

Shikh Ahmad projected the ban on cows. He proposed that ~~or~~ ban on the slaughter of cows was oppression against the muslims. This ~~ban~~ on cows was left in the rule of ~~Jahangir~~. Thus, it was the struggle of Shikh Ahmad to achieve.

5. Exposed Akbar's Deen-E-Elahi:

Shikh Ahmad exposed the Deen-E-Elahi of Akbar. Shikh was scolded for his actions. Although he succeeded to address through sermons, books and meetings the man made Open-E-Elahi of Akbar.

Construction of masjids:

Before the reforms of Shikh Ahmad, the rulers used to allow pagans to demolish masjids and built temples. The true struggles of shikh reduced that ideology. Later, in the rule of Jahangir numerous masjids were built.

7. Description of Sufism and Islam:

According to Ahmed

Saeed said that the Deen-e-Ethn and Hindus influenced the Muslims religiously. The muslims believed and mixed Sufism and Islam. Thus, Shikh Ahmed ascribed difference between Islam and Sufism.

8. Dismissed Hindus from higher positions:

This dream was not achieved in the lifetime of Shikh though this was set up by Jahangir. Jahangir dismissed the Hindus from higher positions such as court and finance so on and so forth.

9. Re-impose tax on pagans who visited religious sights:

Before the reforms of Shikh, Hindus were free to visit religious sites. Soon after the reform movement, the tax was imposed on them visits.

4. Critical analysis:

Shikh Ahmad was needed to change the society of muslims of India. At that time muslims were in the state of chaos and confusion. The Islamic state was entirely influenced by the pagans. Especially, the Akber's Deen-e-Ehadi pushed Islam in the down fall.

Shikh changed the scenarios of chaos, oppression against muslims and saved the upcoming rules of the Mughal Empire.
