

2016

Q: Re write the following dialogue, written in indirect speech, in a paragraph form.

Helen: Mr West, What happened to John?

Mr West: He left the Company.

Helen: Why has he done that?

Mr West: Because he was lazy.

Helen: Has he found another job?

Mr West: I think he earns quite a lot.

Helen: Does he like the new job?

Mr West: I don't know.

When Helen asked Mr West what had happened to John, ~~listening that~~ Mr West informed her that he (John) has left the Company. Hearing that Helen asked the reason that why had he (John) done it. Listening that Mr West blamed John's laziness for that. Hearing that Helen asked whether he had found another job. Hearing that Mr West replied in affirmative manner saying that he (John) earned a lot. Listening that Helen once again asked that if he (John) liked the new job. Hearing that Mr West denied that he did not know.

satisfactory

3/5

21/7/24

→

→

→