Start with the summary of the answer as introduction

Islam is made up of SLM which means peace, submission or surrender. Its contextual meaning is to enter in peace by submitting to the will of Allah or submission of desires to the will of Allah.

According to Professor Khurshid Ahmed, Islam literally means commitment and obedience - as a religion, it stands for belief in one God and in all the prophets of God, the last of whom was Muhammad (peace be upon him) and for complete submission to the Divine will as revealed through his prophets. The final revelation came through Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon him) and is known as Islam.

According to Imam Ghazali Islam is the name of two things Rights of Allah and Rights of people.

Islam is a complete way of life. It integrates man with God, awakens in him a new moral consciousness and invites him to deal with all the problems of life.

Human rights

Islam is the religion which guide us how should we behave with other human beings one of the biggest example we can take is of the last sermon of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) in which he emphasized upon the equality and discouraged the racism. He said that ~~the~~ Arab has no superiority over non Arab, nor a non-Arab has any superiority over an Arab, a white person has no superiority over a black person, nor does a black person have any superiority over a person, except by righteousness.

Islam does not just emphasize on human rights but it also urges humans to care for animals as well as environment. It is a Hadith that planting a green tree is a best charity.
