To Divine'

Instead of human's weaknesses, nature created a superior power in them to know about their divines and communicate with them. This always provides a sure guidance to humans. In ancient Greece, the soothsayers decoded the wishes and signals and <sup>understood</sup> ~~understand~~ <sup>interpreted</sup> ~~interpret~~ them. However, in some cases the gods entered in their bodies for short time and spoke directly with their believers. These soothsayers <sup>were</sup> located in such organized places ~~in~~ <sup>that</sup> ~~which~~ they <sup>were</sup> directly associated with their gods. ~~Apollo~~ was most typical soothsayer of Greek. He pronounced the ~~Zeus~~ decisions and Delphi worked with Apollo. The oldest was Dodona, the assistant of Zeus.

to do with "it. Still, we have to take it in our lives. The same is going on today. Each century brought changes with it which has totally new from previous centuries. The development of natural arts and sciences has given man a lot, which can be termed as a trash of social and economic processes. Nature gives us fruit but also binds us to dispose its peels in a proper way. If it not done correctly, the environment gets polluted.
