

English Essay Outline

Extremism has become an existential threat for Pakistan

Outline:

1. Introductory Remark: The unprecedented surge in extremism has jolted the ~~foundations of Pakistan.~~ has jolted the socio-economic fabric

Thesis Statement: In contemporary times, Pakistan is in the midst of problems ranging from persistent rise in inflation to ~~unemployment.~~ from the ever rising However, the greatest threat to its existence stems from the presence of extremism which is exhibited in the form of terrorist attacks and intolerance of minority communities.

the extremism in Pakistan has multiple impacts:

2) The consequences of extremism for Pakistan

- a) Polarised society; leading to social disharmony and prejudices.
- b) Weakening of civil institutions

c) Loss of international credibility and support.

d) Reduced investor confidence, rising economic uncertainty, and declining foreign direct investment. e.g. China's damaged spirit.

rising extremism is not without causes:

3) ~~The Causes of Extremism~~

a) Religious groups creating and promoting extremism; breeding ground for intolerance.

b) Absence of a proper educational system.

c) Economic crisis; rising poverty, widening inequality, and sense of deprivation.

d) Negligence of the state in addressing grievances of multiple groups.

4) Countering Extremism Strategy

a) Concerted efforts in spreading education.

b) Strengthening civil institutions; law enforcement mechanisms.

c) Developing inclusive state policies.

d) Effective two-way communication between all stakeholders and interest groups of society.

5) Conclusion