

Topic: Human rights are the first casualty in any conflict

Outline:

1. Introduction

Thesis statement

2. Crunch paragraph

3. What sorts of conflicts lead to the violation of human rights

Exacerbates

a. Violation of human rights due to conflicts at individual level

b. Conflicts at the societal level contribute to the infringement of human rights

c. Human rights are breached owing to the conflicts at national level

d. Conflicts at global level result in the contravention of human rights

4. How human rights are the first casualty in any conflict

- a. Conflicts involving use of force deprive humans of their right to life
- b. Freedom of opinion is suppressed in the event of conflicts
- c. Right to liberty is violated when a conflict involves armed forces
- d. Destruction of infrastructure deprives humans of their right to education
- e. Personal security of individuals is ~~threatened in case of a wider conflict~~ Avoid repetition of
- f. Belligerent groups often interfere with the human's right to privacy
- g. Right to free movement is hindered owing to the conflicts
- h. Right to basic needs is infringed when genocide is committed in conflicts

5. Case study: Human rights as first casualty in ongoing Israel-palestine conflict

6. Way forwards to protect human rights in case of conflicts

a. Strengthening the role of United Nations Security Council to protect human rights

b. Governments should strictly implement the rule of law to protect human rights

c. Boycott of belligerent groups openly breaching violating human rights

d. ~~Due respect should be given to~~ the provision of International Humanitarian Law during times of armed conflict

7. Conclusion