New Politics at Last

Opinion (Dawn News)

It is true, that Pakistan is ill and everyone is trying to treat her with their own designed medicine.

Pakistan is suffering from poverty, inflation, illiteracy, lack of jobs, wheat crises, corruption, neonatal mortality rates. These all issues are because of political instability and a bad governance.

But, some people are still trying to rescue their country from the corrupt political leaders.

It seems good and our country really needs a party who follows Constitution and uphold the principle of establishments' non-interference, in politics.

It is said that Khagan Abbasi, Muhammad Nawaz Khokar and Mifta Ismail left the PML-N party for their respective reasons.

Three of them joined their heads and held a summit to start a new politics

at last with a rekindling of hope.
