

Globalization and national economies

Outline:

1. Introduction:

Thesis statement: Globalization has not only contributed in the growth of national economies but also exploited.

2. Contribution of globalization in the growth of national economies:

2.1 Creation of jobs

A case study of CPEC

2.2 Increased production of underdeveloped economies such food, livestock and energy

2.3 Investment in the mining sector

A case study of Barrick Company

2.4 Improved agriculture sectors of underdeveloped nations

2.5 Advancement in the technological economies

Reuters Report on Digital economy

2.6 Enormous progress in vocational education

3. Exploitation of national economies:

3.1 Utilization of the natural resources belong to underdeveloped countries

Reference: MNCs

3.2 increased brain drain

3.3 Exploitation of local businesses

A case study of Afghan Refugees

3.4 Exploitation of workers has impacted the national economies

3.5 Contributing in unemployment

3.6 Outflow of valuable minerals such gold and copper

4. Conclusion