Nizar Hassan, a famous Palestinian film-maker, produced Independence in 1994. He highlighted Palestinian perspective about Israel's rhetoric of independence. He informed the writer about his latest film "My Grandfather's path" which was a blessing. It is believed that strong opposition towards Israeli atrocities would compel one to follow the suit and give up on his valuable principles. For years, different aspects of art-work, allowed one to evade the trap. In his latest documentary, while condemning Israel's occupational tendencies, Nizar has raised Palestinian perspective. It is a masterpiece work and an excellent tribute to one's homeland. Although its shorter version comprising of 3 parts is available on Al-Jazeera, but, it must be watched uninterrupted.
