

Topic: Globalization is for the west and from the west

1) Introduction

Globalization is heavily associated with the west or originate from western countries. The west has played a significant role in shaping globalization, it is not accurate to characterize globalization as solely originating from the west. It is a dynamic process that involves contribution and influence from wide range of countries around the world.

2) Overview of Globalization

3) Many countries across the world benefits from Globalization (Thesis)

a) New middle class in developing and emerging economies

Example: China, India, Indonesia

b) Active participants in the transfer of technology across borders.

China, South Korea, Singapore.

c) Major role of countries outside west in human capital development.

Example: China, Singapore, Rwanda.

d) Cultural exchange from different countries

Example: Pakistan, India and many South Asian countries

e) Developing countries at forefront of Environmental challenges

Example:

China, India, Indonesia, Nigeria

f) Countries contributing to labor mobility and international workforce diversity.

Example: Middle-East countries

g) Sharing of Religion practices and beliefs across countries

Example: Spread of Buddhism from India to East Asia and South Asia

4) Only West has benefited from Globalization (Antithesis)

a) Greatly expanded their access to Global markets

Example: United States, Germany, Canada
France

b) Western multinational corporations attract large FDI

Example: United Kingdoms, Netherlands, Switzerland.

c) Forefront of technological innovation

Example: United States

d) Western cultural products achieved global popularity

Example: Films, music, fashion and consumer brands

e) Financial Example

f) Geopolitical Example

5) Critic

6) Con.

e) financial dominance of western countries
Example: banks, investment firms and credit rating agencies influence over global capital flows and monetary policies.

f) Geopolitical influence of western countries over others
Example: Western military interventions, diplomatic alliances and international agreements to maintain western hegemony

5) Critical Analysis:

6) Conclusion: