

Date: _____

PART-II

QUESTION: 02

Make a preci of the following passage and suggest a suitable title.

China built the Great Wall, twenty century ago, for peace. But after 100 years of construction, China faced three times more invasion of enemy. Despite the construction of high walls, they couldnot build the characters of wall-guards that led enemies to cross the Great wall by taking money. Human character has prime importance in terms of job and new generation's vision. As per ornalist, three things can destroy civilization: disrupting the family structure, perishing the education system and demeaning their role models. The key to them will be loss of conscious mother; well aware of everything. When conscious mother is lost, passionate teachers are devalued and role models are disreputed that enlightens young generations with human values. Moreover; nation that sets artists on priority instead of educated ones has no guarantee of prosperous future.

① Human values vs Prosperity
Title: ② Importance of human values in civilization

QUESTION: 03

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Questions

1- What factors determine the role of courts in society?

The role of courts in society is determined by following:

- (a) Judges perception of their function
- (b) Expectation of public
- (c) Executive and legislature of the courts
- (d) Judiciary, as well as political and social institutions.

2- How do changing conditions and ^{con} perceptions influence the role of courts?

Often there is a gap between the judge's perception and other expectations. Indeed, there is a division of opinion among the judges on the concept of judicial function and there are differences in others' expectations of the nature of judicial role. Furthermore, the judicial self-perceptions of their role and others' expectations of the court are swayed by changing conditions and conceptions.

Date: _____

3- What are some reasons the public might criticize the judiciary, according to the text?

As per the text; some of public criticisms are instigated by controversial cases in which the judgements of the courts and comments made by judges were out of tune with popular feelings or were insensitive to certain segments of the public. These cases are often charged with emotional, ideological, social or political elements, which always transform a routine legal matter into a controversial case which lies in eye of a public storm and turns an ordinary case into a household word.

4- How do academic and professional critics typically describe the judiciary and what titles have they sometimes bestowed upon judges?

Usually the academic and profession critics of the courts phrase their criticism in restrained terms. The judiciary, they say, has been timid, unimaginative, not active, not creative, orthodox, conventional or conservative in its law-making functions and that it has over-practised judicial self restraint. Academics and professional critics; sometimes, bestow upon a judge the title of "socially reactionary" or "the high priest of rigid stare decisis and the limited role for the judiciary," both titles conferred on Viscount Simonds.

Date: _____

5- Why might certain judicial rulings become controversial? Give your opinion.

QUESTION:-04

Correct any five of following-

- (i) There are little apples in the basket.
- (ii) The movie was much interesting.
- (iv) She was cooking dinner while he was watching TV.
- (v) I had better called my parents to let them know I was running late.
- (vii) Many travelers have lost in this maze-like city.

QUESTION:-05

—(A)—
Punctuate the following.

A fast train raced along the border of the biggest cattle ranch in Montana. A passenger gazed at the huge herds and when the train finally passed the other boundary of the ranch; he returned to the man who was sitting beside him and said. What a huge herd of cattle! I counted 13,750 head. The man was surprised, That's amazing! he answered. I own that ranch and you are exactly right. I have exactly 13,750 head of cattle. How were you able to count them so fast? 9. just counted their legs and divided by four.

Date: _____

B

Only five blanks with appropriate Prepositions.

(i) He has great affection for his children.

(ii) She didn't qualify herself in English.

(iv) He prevented his younger brother from going to cinema.

(vii) Your principal will preside on the annual function.

(viii) We will have to answer for our sins at last day.

(ix) Would you like to attend this dispute for him?

(v) You should profit on his speech.

(vi) You are not polite in your conduct with me.

Date: _____

QUESTION:-06

Any "S" - sentences

(ii)

On the Anvil — The new policy changes are still on the anvil and will be announced next month.

(v)

To drop in — Feel free to drop in anytime for a cup of tea.

(vi)

To rest on one's laurels — You did well in all your exams but you cannot simply rest on your laurels, improve to get more.

(vii)

A puffed pipe — This old building is now a puffed pipe after Earthquake.

(viii)

Elephant in the room — During meeting no one wanted to address the elephant in the room.

(B)

Rewrite the following dialogue, written in direct speech in a paragraph form.

Sarah greeted Mark with Hey. Sarah asked Mark if he had heard about the upcoming competitive Exams. Mark replied yes. He said that he had been thinking about whether he should take them or not. Mark asked whether exams were really important. Sarah replied yes competitive exams played a crucial role in shaping our future. Sarah said that they not only test our knowledge but also our problem-solving skills, time management and ability to handle pressure. Mark replied that he never had thought about it in that way. Mark asked if exams weren't too stressful. He said that he was worried about how he would perform under such pressure. Sarah replied that it was natural to feel stressed but think of it as a challenge to overcome. Sarah further said that competitive exams push them to strive for excellence and brought out the ~~ex~~ best in them. Sarah further said that the sense of achievement he would feel after clearing them is unmatched. Mark replied that was true. Mark further said that he guessed that they did offer a great opportunity to showcase their abilities and stood among their peers. Mark thanked Sarah for helping him ~~and~~ to understand the importance of competitive exams. Sarah replied ~~that she would give it her best shot~~. He further said that he would give ~~it~~ his best shot.

QUESTION: 07

Translation

In the subway of New York, a violin man played a note for 45 minutes. A few people stopped, a couple clapped, and the violin man accumulated approximately $30. No one knew that violin player was Joshua Bail, who was one of the best musicians in the world. In that subway, Joshua played one ^{of the} note/beat among most intricate beats ~~was~~ played by $3.5M violin. Two days before the subway incident, Joshua Bail performed in Boston and earned millions of dollars. It is evident from experience that in ordinary circumstances extraordinary things do not blossom/shine and sometimes it gets ignored or given less importance. Everywhere splendid, skillful people are present who do not get that identity and reward that they deserve. That's why, go where you are praised and valued.