

Note; This is just outline, intro and conclusion.

Date: _____

The Elusive dream: Unemployment and Quest of Government jobs.

a. Introduction

b. Our education system produces graduate not Creative brains.

c. Government job has become social norm.

d. lack of government initiative towards business environment.

e. Demand of highly experienced staff.

f. Remedies for Eradication of Unemployment and Quest of Government Jobs:

f.a. Political stability

f.b. Invest on Education sector

f.c. Promotion of business awareness

f.d. Provision of business environment

f.e. Improve security

g. Conclusion

No doubt, government provides opportunity to serve the nation and source of earning in the form of government jobs. But, solely depends on government job is totally wrong decision. However, it will ^{create} unemployment. On the otherhand, everyone wants to get government job. In these days, it has become social norm. Moreover, education system also contributes in this challenge because it produces graduate not creative or skilful individual. Not only this, requirement of highly experienced staff also creates significant void in the way of employment. Due to this these same challenges, Unemployment and quest of government jobs has become elusive dream in the today's world. Furthermore, these issues can be solved for the prosperity of the nation. It needs to bring political stability, & invest more on education sector. As per report, twenty six million ~~other~~ children are out of school. Likewise, provide business environment also contributes in the betterment of nation. Furthermore, some other factors contribute to combat this challenge which are ~~discussed~~ ~~is~~ also valuable discussed in further discussion.

Date: _____

In nutshell, -these factors contribute as hindrance in -the way of employment. Government requires to solve -these issues -through introducing friendly policies, and -through providing environment of business, for eradicating unemployment. Moreover, in same way we can refrain government job becomes social norm. Not only -this, also destroy from becomes an elusive dream.