My Best Friend

There are many friends in my life but there is a person who has special place in my heart. Some people call this special person as their best friend but I call her^{as} my soul mate. Her name is Naila. She lives in Wazirabad. We are also school mates. We share a very special bond of friendship. Moreover, we play ~~together~~, study ~~together~~ and go for shopping together. As she also lives near my house, therefore, ~~we~~^{she} also goes for morning walk along with me.

In addition, we both have a keen interest in books. Sometimes, she also borrows books from me. I have also gifted her, the most famous Harry Potter series. She also visits my house every week. At her visit, we make delicious dishes. Her parents are also urbane in nature. Therefore, I feel at home with her.

To conclude, she I ~~may~~^{must} say that she is a very beautiful girl with a kind heart. May Allah bless her with the shower of blessings.
