

Trip to Cherokee

According to the author, during his vacation, he had a struggled to choose a tour place. He wished to go a place where mob of tourists. He was happy when his friend suggested him a trip to Cherokee. He acceded to him. They took a flight and arrived at the chosen place. The Cherokee gave the glimpse of past tourists. With the language obstacle, they succeeded in reaching the place that consists of different traditional objects. At that place, they met a local person. He invited them to lunch and told them that he worked hard to fulfill their basic needs. This proved that the Cherokee was not the financially strong. After that, they reached their final destination, which is the museum of Cherokee. Where arts from different perspectives were present. When they came back, they missed the Cherokee alot, and were ready to visit another Captivating place next time.

Words in Passage = approx 453 words
Words in Pre'cis = 149 words