

Eng. Essay

Power Corrupts and Absolute Power Corrupts absolutely.

① Introduction.

② Power demar the degree of ~~the~~ person corruptedness and not the character.

- Man is evil by nature (e.g Realist view)
- No one is less or more sinfull
- Everyone comitts a crime to the extent of his power.

③ hierarchal systems promotes absolute power / power accumulation in one place.

- monopoly in market
- Monarchy gives absolute power to king.

④ Consequences of ~~absolute~~ Power-holder:

- No fear or self accountability
- God Syndrome
- insame brutality as in case

of Hitler

⑤ Consequences on the society

- Economic disparities and exploitation.
- Erosion and downfall of societies (all formal kingdoms faced collapsed badly).

⑥ = Conclusion.