

Comprehension:

Q1: What has been lamented in the text?

The author lamented that art has disappeared from the life of ordinary man. Now-a-days aesthetics ~~has~~ is just confined to works of artists and scientists. People only see beauty in appearance of things & are utterly blind of moral aesthetics. But, only moral beauty can satisfy spiritual desire. If it is explored in everything of universe.

Q2: What is the difference between ordinary man & an artist?

Ans: An ordinary man is attracted by aesthetics of things. He searches for beauty in everything. He wants beauty for the sake of beauty. ~~But~~ Comparatively, an artist explores aesthetics in every little creature of nature & try to impart beauty in his creations.

Q3: How can we make our lives beautiful & charming?

Ans: We can make our lives beautiful but recognizing beauty in everything of universe & by adopting moral values in our actions. It will ultimately satisfy our spiritual desires.

Q4: What does the writer actually mean when he says, "Beauty is not an ornament to life"?

Ans: The author means Beauty is not only used for embellishing things but actually it's combination of its aesthetic & moral activity which dwells not only in appearance but also inside it.

Q5: Do art & beauty affect our practical lives & morals? Justify whether you agree or disagree.

Ans: Art & beauty affects our life because work without beauty means unsatisfied spiritual desire in the worker. Art & beauty brings motivation, fun & help us to stay more focused.