WHY DO I WANT TO BECOME A CSS OFFICER

Imagine doing a job which demands so much that the ~~mean~~ meaning of your existence becomes dependant on it. Because it takes so much of your time and energy. Indeed to become a Civil Servant is not everyone's cup of tea. good use of idiom American politician Eleanor Roosevelt once said that, public service must be more than doing a job efficiently and honestly, it must be a complete dedication to the people and nation. I want to be in Civil Service for several reasons. Firstly, the job will give me power which I will use to serve my country and I believe that it is the most honorable thing to do. Secondly, I will enjoy the job security which my government provides. Thirdly, I will be able to explore diverse investment opportunities. Lastly, I will be pre-privileged to have multiple educational scholarships on my table. Hence, it is evident that to be in ~~ser~~ ^{the} Civil Services one must be prepared to be challenged but the returns are considerable as well.
