

Translation In the subway of the New York, a violenist played violin for 45 minutes. Some of the people stopped, a couple clapped and the violenist collected about 30 dollars. No one knew, the violenist was the Joshwa Bell, who was one of the best musicians of the world. In that subway, Joshwa with the violin of 3.5 million worth, played one of the di-thrwa worlden tones. Two days back to the incid-thrwa to sitten tones. Two days back to the incid-ent of the subway, Joshwa performed in the Bos-ton and he earned millions of dollars. It is proved from emperience, that precious ones does not in the continuity environment and fleen there is not ond devalued. The great and capable people are present everywhere who did not get desired iden-lity and respect which they deserve. Thus, choose those places where you are praised and valued.

