Essay

As renowned travel writer Pico Iyer once said, 'Travel is not really about leaving our homes, but leaving our habits'. In Pakistan, tourists have the chance to break free from their routines and experience a land of extraordinary beauty and cultural depth. In recent years Pakistan has seen a gradual increase in tourism, driven by improved security and international recognition. Travel publications like Forbes and Conde Nast Traveler have highlighted Pakistan as a top travel destination, bringing global attention to its science beauty and cultural treasures.
