

If women are not protect socially, can Legal actions them protect

1. Introduction

Thesis Statement. Woman is the frontline protector and custodian of the civilized society; therefore, by ~~social perspective, if women are not protected, legal mechanisms are bound to stand by them politically and economically.~~ Unclear thesis statement

2. The brief perspectives: social and legal actions for women.

3. ~~How women are protected~~ women are protected socially

a) proper education and moral ethics to encourage women's protection

Case in point - Rayasat-e-Madina - Ancestors of prophet.

b) the participation in political activities and representation

Case in point:

1st feminist wave

c) the guarantees of religious practice

Case in point

In the west and middle east.

d) The will of the onus marriage freedom.

Case in point-

Pakistan and Afghanistan

e) the proper implementation of the fundamental rights.

Case in point

Articles from 8 to 28.

f) Equally treatment of women in social and political diaspora.

Case in point:

No discrimination on the color, language and gender Article 25

g) Health and social welfare for women

Case in point

Birth and Physical illness

b) Participation in Science and Technology

Case in point

Physics and medical noble prizes.

4) Legal protections of women is unchangeable and liable for all:

a) Constitutional protection through all the views.

Case in point.

→ Article 25.

→ Women protection bills 2012, 2019.

b) United Nations Organization framework for women's prosperity

Case in point.

CSW, Heio

c) Beijing conference to uphold the women's dignity

Case in point.

Vote for survival.

d) International Organization working for women's legal protection

Case in point.

UNCEIP and WHO.

e) world international legal Forum: America

Case in point
Bill of abortion

f) Educational institution for women's mandatory participation and learning

Case in point
Women Gender studies

g) International Conventions and treaties to protect women from the social evils

Case in point
→ Domestic violence → Honor killing

h) ~~war~~ Women funds ~~partic~~

Case in point
Malala fund

5) Conclusion

The topic has not been properly deconstructed and addressed

Before ~~an~~ <sup>the</sup> advent of Islam, women were treated inhumanly and they were considered as the sexual instrument.

Moreover, at that epoch, kings and emperors got the women slave and made them buried alive. They had the belief that there would be no right of woman to live and be shoulder to shoulder with ~~too~~ man. However, after the emergence emergence of Islam, women were given the title of seven Qurans and not only this, but <sup>also</sup> women had been awarded the completed rights socially, politically, and economically. To add to that, today's social and legal actions are being protected to women because of the Islamic freedom.

In accordance with social protection of women are to uphold proper education and moral values, to encourage women secured.

The open participation in political, religious and cultural activities are come up with social responsibilities.

Further, legal actions are the robust ~~actions~~ for surety of women protection through constitution, treaties, organizations and laws. International conferences, domestic bills, and agreements are responsible for women's security and freedom. Thus, woman is the witness of civilized society and custodian of development.

Conclusion

In conclusion, women are bound to be protected socially and legally in the world arena. However, social problems in which women endure the early marriage, poor education, health unease and domestic violence. Social authorities have to see prevent and mitigate the phenomena in the way of women. Ultimately, if social society fails to make the women safe and keeps away from the leverage of the social evils, then the legal actions can be actionable to build "Iron clad" around the women through internal and external laws, treaties, conferences, organizations and regulations. Therefore, legal protection is the substantive right of the women.

Weak sentence structure

Choice of words is not accurate

Weak understanding of the topic