

Critical analysis on All out war between Hezbollah and Israel"

Start with the summary of the answer as an introduction

Background:

So far Israel has attacked Palestine and killed millions of people. Now, the conflict is also being raised between hezbollah and Israel.

Since Israel has attacked Lebanon's capital "Beirut" and Hezbollah is attacking on Israel. All-out war between Hezbollah and Israel can damage both sides as they are attacking each other. The residents of both countries are leaving their places because they are afraid of the war some are appealing the government to do a complete operation in once so that they can live in a peaceful environment.

Comparative analysis

1. Strategic assets of Israel and Lebanon:

There is an If-then situation, what if a war starts between the two countries? As we know a war is led by weapons, missiles, drones etc. If we do a contemporary comparison between the strategic assets between the two countries then Hezbollah seems to be stronger than Israel.

- According to the US analysts and think tanks, Iron dome shaped missiles of Israel will not work properly if Hezbollah keep on throwing their missiles as Hezbollah military is way better than Israel since 2006.
- Hezbollah has gained the guided missiles which can be fired through mobile launchers.
- Drones also have been given by

Attempt by giving subheadings;
not points

Iran, something like kamikaze have not been countered by Israel yet.

• According to research center in Israel, Hezbollah can straightaway throw 3000 missiles a day in case of war.

• According to Guardian report Hezbollah has 1 to 2 lac missiles and will make difficult for Israel to control.

Use elaborate, self explanatory and relevant headings

2. Strategic depth:

- The strategic depth of the country tells us about how important it is for the war between the two countries since the width and length of Israel are not deep to fight if all-out war starts between the two countries.

3. Peace talks between the Two Countries:

- This now America's President Joe Biden asked to stop this after analyzing the current status of military in Israel. They would not be able to suffer the situation.
- This can come to an end if PM Netanyahu stops the campaign in Gaza but unfortunately he and his war cabinet are not listening and saying they will keep on doing this till they kill Hamas and Hezbollah.
- On contrary, Hamas says that they will also not stop and leave Israel's captives till they leave GAZA.

4. Map Representation:

Short answer. Add more arguments

5. Conclusion:

According to the analysts, it will result in disastrous effects and would be more damaging than the war happened in 2006, where Lebanon lost her many civilians and Israel lost her army.

Additionally, other rival countries of Israel like Syria and Yemen are not active yet but they are thinking about the situation where Iran is still supporting Hezbollah.

A 20 marks answer should have around 15 subheadings