

Do not write names plz

The author wanted to visit an exciting and exotic place. His friends, ~~John~~, advised him to visit Cherokee, in the state of Oklahoma. They started off their journey by visiting a town named Qualla Boundary which was surrounded by huge mountains. The tribal crafts and life-styles of 18th century depicted ~~was image~~ of Cherokee's past. Despite of language barrier, ~~they found~~ ~~some shops~~. The shops were full of traditional stuff. They were welcomed by George, who later, invited them for a lunch. George informed them that Cherokee's are not entirely dependent on trade. During the off season, the Cherokee's opt for other ways like Bingo-weekend, which generate sufficient income. Lastly, ~~they found~~ a museum where a wide range of arts and symbols of Cherokee's cosmology were displayed.

Cherokee: An exciting place to visit.

Title is fine

TOTAL WORDS

Paragraphing is perfect

Try to attempt some complex passage

REQUIRED WORDS

120

PRECIS ATTEMPT

124