

DATE 25.5.24

Democracy in Pakistan: Hopes and Hurdles.

I- Introduction:-

Democracy in Pakistan has been on the verge of collapse ever since its inception. Due to the Military rule, Democracy has remained derailed. The hopes lie in the participation of youth in politics, and the promotion of political literacy. However, Hurdles such as economic instability, Socio-economic disparities, Strong hold of feudals on resources, and differences between communities on basis of culture language and sects, continue to impede progress. Requiring concrete efforts from all sectors of the country to realize the full potential of democratic governance.

II- Historical background of democracy in Pakistan showcasing hopes and hurdles.

III- Hopes for democracy in Pakistan

- a) Participation of youth in politics.
- b) Promotion of political literacy.
- c) Women participation in politics.
- d) Martial law is obsolete.
- e) Reforms in Election Commission of Pakistan.

D) Awareness among people due to social media.

IV- Hurdles for democracy in Pakistan

- a) Economic instability.
- b) Strong hold of feudals.
- c) Difference between communities on basis of culture, language and assets.
- d) Lack of civilian supremacy.
- e) Weak political institutions.
- f) Conflicts among provinces.
- g) Corruption at various levels.

V- Suggestions → Make proper phrase

- a) Reducing corruption by effective policy measures.
- b) Ensuring economic stability through creating opportunities for foreign investors.
- c) Building consensus between provinces on various issues among them.

VI- Conclusion

Suggestions should be more solid
Rest is fine