

34605-065

Brain Drains

Brain storm.

Causes

- Low education standards.
- political instability
- Economic Crisis
- Better job and health facilities
- Human Rights protection
- High Living standards

Effects

- Decline Health system.
- shortage of Health workers
- Miserable/uncertain life.
- shortage of educated and skilled workers.

Outline

① Introduction

- Introductory Paragraph.
- Background Information / Body.
- Thesis statement.

② Main Body

Causes of Brain Drain

2.1 Economic factors

Arguments should be self-explanatory

- Unemployment
- Higher salaries and better jobs
- Unstable Economy

2.2 Educational opportunities

- High Quality education
- Scholarships
- Advanced training

2.3 Political stability

- Countries with stable Govt.
- Human rights protection
- Justice
- Equal rights
- Low Corruption

2.4 Healthcare

- Advanced Healthcare system
- Good living standards
- Good social services

2.5 Quality of life

Higher living standards

Provision of healthcare and Safety, freedom and Justice.

2.6 Equality.

Equal Human Rights.

Equal opportunities.

No gender discrimination.

"Effects of Brain Drains"

3.1 Economic Impact

3.1.1 Unstable economy

3.1.2 Local business decline

3.1.3 Loss of skilled workforce

3.1.4 Reduced Innovation.

3.2 Educational decline

Loss of Educators and researchers weakens the educational system

poor educational quality

3.3 political instability

Weakened Governance

Lack of skilled Administration

3.4 Healthcare Deficit :-

3.4.1 Lack of Medical professionals

3.4.2 Increased Healthcare challenges

3.4.3 Increased patient load

3.4.4 Compromised Healthcare facilities

3.5 Miserable Life

3.5.1 Lack of Basic necessities

3.5.2 Lack of favourable work environment

3.5.3 Injustice & Lack of freedom

Mention remedial measures as well

Introduction

The brilliant minds and skilled professionals leave the countries to earn livelihood for their children "Brain Drain".

actually the migration of skilled and highly educated people to the developed countries. This phenomena not only alters the landscapes of economy and industry but also creates behind a ^{talent} vacuum ~~talent~~ of expertise and potentials in their homeland. This phenomena creates an impact on both leaving and host country.

Be more formal and clear in your arguments