

Comprehension:

Q1: What has been lamented in the text?
The author ~~laments that~~ <sup>Where it has disappeared</sup> ~~art~~ has disappeared from life of ordinary man. ~~Now-a-days~~ <sup>Where it has disappeared</sup> aesthetics ~~has~~ is just confined to works of artists and scientists. ~~People only see~~ <sup>People only find beauty in</sup> ~~beauty in appearance of things~~ <sup>beauty in</sup> ~~they~~ are utterly blind of moral aesthetics. But, only moral beauty can satisfy spiritual desire. If it is explored in every thing of universe.

Q2: What is ~~the difference~~ <sup>Try to answer questions more relevantly</sup> between ordinary man ~~and~~ an artist?

Ans: An ordinary ~~man~~ <sup>He desires</sup> is attracted by aesthetics of things. ~~He searches for beauty in everything.~~ ~~He wants beauty for the sake of beauty.~~ ~~Comparatively,~~ <sup>Comparatively,</sup> an artist explores aesthetics in every little creature of nature ~~and~~ <sup>try</sup> to impart beauty in his creations.

Q3: How can we make our lives beautiful & charming?

Plz explain more

Ans: We can make our lives beautiful but recognizing beauty in everything of universe by adopting moral values in our actions. It will ultimately satisfy our spiritual desires.

Q4: What does the writer actually mean when he says, "Beauty is an ornament to life"?

Plz break it into short sentences

Ans: The writer means beauty is not only used for embellishing things but actually it's combination of aesthetic & moral activity which dwells not only in appearance but also inside it.

Q5: Do art & beauty affect our practical lives & morals? Justify whether you agree or disagree.

This is a confusing statement

Ans: Art & beauty affects our life because work without beauty means unsatisfied spiritual desire in the worker. Art & beauty brings motivation, fun & help us to stay more focused.