

Q. Precise the following passage and suggest a suitable title?

EFFECT of modern education on children.

The author objects modern educationalist. who are not liking with students instead of enjoying their company they prefer not to interfere with them. if one has interfering with children like one has liking with pets. they will be more responsive and follow advices without any argument. But this linking is not based on any social endeavour and future benefits. Develops a relationship without any personal desire otherwise they will not grateful. Over-burden teachers are unable to develop such a natural relationship with students. They used harsh behaviour to control them. Try to avoid rude-behaviour and make friendliness. if they like you they must obey your rules.

