

Challenges for Muslim Ummah

Contemporary challenges of Muslim world are integral part to understand. There are various challenges which are faced by Muslim Ummah.

Firstly, Disunity among the Muslims, Being the muslim states they are not united with each other. They are fighting with each other for the hegemony. Although, there are 50 states of muslim which mean half of the population of the world but they are divided. Even though, they are not doing trade with each other. In addition to this, they are divide on the name of sectarianism. Consequently, It has impacted the every aspect of Muslim ummah. ~~And~~ Secondly, Rise of extremism and terrorism is another challenge for muslim ummah, In the name of extremism, they are killing thousands of people. This started when they created a group for jihad against soviet Union in Afghanistan. After the defeat, they left behind alone. As a result, they started killing of people. And, now, they are called Takfir-Taliban-Pakistan (TTP). Thirdly, lagging behind education, In the history, Muslim world was known for education and inventions, Their literacy was higher. Unfortunately, with the passage of time, illiteracy ratio has increased and they have lagged behind in education.
