Manto's Literature

Manto was socially misconceived. His critics labelled him vulgar and put questions over the morality of his writings. But he kept exploring the realities of life. He unraveled

The enigma of sex in a realistic manner, particularly for the marginalized women of the society Manto was able to build a strong connection with his readers over multiple socio-moral issues. He was aware of the gape between appearance and reality because of the false virtue in human behaviour. As a literary Artist, Manto always remained careful while addressing vulgarity in his writings.
