

"I fall upon the thorns of life I bleed"

Outline:

1. Introduction:

- a. meaning of the title: Horrible experiences in life.
- b. Thesis statement: The life stories of individuals, nations, combats and bloodshed in countries reflect this saying.

2. I fall upon the thorns of life I bleed on individual level:

- 2.1 life story of the Prophet Muhammad (PBUH)
- 2.2 Iman Husain (R.A) and the tragedy of Karbala 680 A.D

3. Application of the proverb on nation level:

- 3.1 Palestine and its unending bloodshed
- 3.2 Pakistan and the fall of Daka 1971
- 3.3 Afghanistan and its long series of wars

4. Economical hurdles of the nations facing through the lens of proverb:

- 4.1 Pakistan's economical down fall
- 4.2 Iranian economy and western sanctions

5. History and the reality of the proverb:

- 5.1 world war II 1939-45

(2)

Date: ___/___/20___

MON TUE WED THS FRI SAT
○ ○ ○ ○ ○ ○

5.2 Syrian civil war

5.3 Ukraine vs Russian conflict

6. I fall upon the throns of life on environmental on level:

6.1 climate change

⇒ Case study of Pakistan

6.2 Covid 19

7. Application of the proverb on relations of the nations:

7.1 US- Russian relations

7.2 Pakistan vs Afghanistan relations

8. Conclusion:

Date: ___/___/20

③ The essay

MON TUE WED THS FRI SAT
○ ○ ○ ○ ○ ○

A Persian girl with long hair, blue eyes and white skin, who was living in Herat Afghanistan in a happy family. Painfully, when the Russians attacked the Afghan soil in 1979 targeted her home town. Consequently, she lost parents and happy family. Thus, life taught her the most painful realities and experiences. This is profoundly true that existence of humans in the risky world is full of horrible experiences. This tremendous saying can be seen with its influence on individual level like the life story of Prophet Muhammad (PBUH) and Imam Husain's (R.A) tragedy of Karbala. Besides, I fall upon the thorns of life I bleed also covers the most notorious experiences of the nations like Palestine, Pakistan and Afghanistan. Also on economical level the downfall of Pakistan's economy and sanctions on Iranian economy can be seen through the lens of this saying moreover, the reality of the horrible experiences of world war II, Syrian civil war and Russian vs ukraine combat can be seen through the perspective of the proverb (I fall upon the thorns of life I bleed). Further, the saying on environmental and relational level also throws light on relations of nations and consequences of climate change. Thus, I fall upon the thorns of life I bleed.

Date: ___/___/20__