

Naration

Practice Questions

Qno:1

He said to me, "I have often told you not to play with fire."

⇒ He told me that he had often told me not to play with fire.

Qno:2

"You have all done very badly!" remarked the teacher.

⇒ The teacher remarked that he had all done very badly.

Qno:3

They wrote, "It is time we thought about settling this matter."

⇒ They wrote that it was time they had thought about settling that matter.

Qno:4

The teacher promised, "If you will come before school tomorrow, I will explain it."

⇒ The teacher promised: if he would come before school the next day, the teacher would explain it.

Qno:5

She wrote, "I am waiting & watching & longing for my son's return."

⇒ She wrote that she was waiting and watching and longing for her son's return.

Qno:6

The examiner's orders were, "No one is to bring books into the room nor ask me questions about what I have told you to do."

⇒ The examiner's orders were that no one was to bring books into the room nor asked him questions about what he had told them to do.

Qno:7

The dwarf said to her, Promise me that when you are queen you will give me your first-born child.

⇒ The dwarf ordered her to promise him that when she was Queen she would give him her first-born child.

Qno:8

'So help me, Heaven!' he cried, 'I will never steal again.'

⇒ He requested Heaven to help him, he would never steal again.

Qno:9

'That is my house,' said he, 'and if

I do not prove it in a few minutes
I will give up my claim.

⇒ He said that was my house and if he did not prove it in a few minutes
he would give up his claim.

Qno:10

'I will avenge your wrongs,' he cried, 'I will not enter Athens until I have punished the king who had so cruelly treated you.'

⇒ He cried that he would avenge his wrongs and he would not enter Athens until he had punished the king who had so cruelly treated him.

Qno:11

One day he sent for Qasim and said to him, "You are now old enough to earn your living, so you must set off, and make your own way in the
world."

⇒ One day he sent for Qasim and told him that he was then old enough to earn his living, so he must set off and made his own way in the world.

Qno:12

'Sweet child', he answered, 'do not fret, for I can make you happier here than ever you could have been on the earth; I will give you beautiful things to play with, which a Queen would envy. Rubies and diamonds shall be your toys, and your plates shall be of solid gold. All the beautiful things you see, belong to me, for I am king of this rich underworld.' But she only replied; 'I was happy playing with the pebbles on the seashore, and I care only for the sparkle of the little waves on the shining sand. Here there are no flowers, no sun, and she wept anew.

⇒ He answered that sweet child, did not fret and he could make her happier there than ever she could have been on the earth; he would give her beautiful things to play with, which a queen would envy. Rubies and diamonds would be her toys, and her plates would be of solid gold. All the beautiful things she saw, belonged to him, for he was king of this rich underworld. But she only replied that she was happy playing with the pebbles on the seashore, and she cared only for the sparkle of the little waves on the shining sand. There were no flowers, no sun and she had wept again.

Qno:13

Her friend said to her, "Can you spare your book for me for a week?"

⇒ Her friend asked her if she could spare her book for her friend for a week.

Qno:14

Then aloud he said, "Tell me, boy, is the miller within?"

⇒ Then aloud he enquired the boy to tell him, if the miller was within.

Qno:15

⇒ The man requested the villagers to bring him a drink of milk.

"Bring me a drink of milk", said the man to the villagers.

Qno:16

He said, "Alas! our foes are too strong."

⇒ He exclaimed sadly that his foes were too strong.