My Grand Father's Path

Nizar Hussain was born in Mashhad. He started working in TV after his graduation. In one of his documentaries, he critically analyzed the Palestinian issue and their territorial displacement. As the world's media was engaged covering Palestinian annexation. The author received an email from Nizar Hussain. Nizar wrote about his latest film "My grand father's path", in which he emphasizes to be careful from enemies. It was a rational warning because the bad/evil deeds of enemies act as a trap that can replace human's creativity and aspirations with negativity. Nizar also credits the cinema and arts for saving him from this trap. Nizar Hussain, in his new film, has beautifully projected the Palestinian perspective about the incursion of Israel on its homeland. However, the film is recommended to be
