

Sample Body Paragraph

Topic: Criminal neglect of child labour and its consequences

Sub-heading: Extreme poverty drives parents to child labour.

Topic Sentence:

Extreme poverty is another factor that drives parents to live off the labour of their little ones.

Explanatory Sentence:

Poverty enables responsibilities on the shoulder of every individual that triggers them to adopt all those means that could be helpful to feed their families.

Supporting Sentence:

Majority of children, both boys and girls, due to dire poverty are forced to Child labour and are made victims of heinous crimes.

Example: According to world Bank, around 386 million children world-wide were living in extreme poverty (on less than $1.90 a day) in 2020, increasing their vulnerability to exploitation and labour.

Concluding Sentence:

Thus, extreme poverty force children to become bused winner.