

People become Overly dependent on technology

Outline

- I. Introduction
- II. Negative Impacts of technology on Politics
 - A. Political Polarization.
 - B. Mis information and dis information
 - C. Privacy concerns
 - D. Cyber Security threats.
- III. Adverse effects of technology on Economy
 - A. Massive loss of traditional industries
 - B. Growing income inequality
 - C. Job displacement
 - D. Market Concentration monopoly power.
- IV. Harmful effects of technology on Social life
 - A. Lack of employment due to dependency on technology.
 - B. Rise of Poverty Caused by relying on technology
 - C. Education is also overly dependent on technology
 - D. Creativity is killing by the dependency on technology
- V. Consequences of technology on environment.
 - A. Spreading of Pollution
 - B. Eradication of natural resources
 - C. Threats to human lives
 - D. Threats to Animal lives.

Information technology is a blessing

Outline

I. Introduction

II. Information technology is a major source of awareness

A. Information technology provides us awareness about social and political issues in the world.

B. National media and international media is a significant user of information technology.

C. Communication system is totally dependent on information technology.

D. Information technology provides environmental information regarding floods and weather complications.

iii. Information technology plays a significant role in the economy

A. Information technology is used for business purposes.

B. Industries progress more effectively with the use of IT.

C. Information technology generates new skills for earning money.

D. Information technology helps to stabilize the economy.

E. Businessman can monitor their business by information technology.

iv. Information technology has a vital social role

- A. Information technology plays a crucial role in health care system.
- B. Information technology has a significant role in education sectors.
- C. People get information; access through information technology.
- D. Information technology provides several ways of entertainment.
- E. Information technology is a major tool of social development.

v. Effects of information technology on technology

- A. Information technology is used in educational institutions for study and research purposes.
- B. Information technology played a significant role in space.
- C. Information technology is being used to strengthen defence system.
- D. Information technology facilitates global connectivity and interaction across the boundaries.