

There are many grounds that make, my city, the best city of the country. First, its peace and, harmony among the residents. Though, there live various religious ethnicities. Second, the law and order in my city is applaudable. It is because, it is a countryside city of 5000 people. Due to, small population and tolerance among people, has fortunately fashioned our city, free from crimes. Third, it is uncontaminated area. Therefore, inhabitants have low prospects of diseases, which ultimately aggrandize the progress of the city. Finally, the education system of my city is according to the International Standard Classification of Education. To conclude, my city is the best city for its, peace, law and order, low level of pollution, and International standard education.
