

Date:

Q: 1Manto's Writings

Manto was criticized by hypocrites. His critics labelled him as indecent and questioned the morality of his writings. Despite that, he did not give up and continued his search for exploring harsh realities of the world. He aimed to ^{at unwinding} ~~unwind~~ the mysteries of sex in a profound manner. Because his characters were so close to reality, belonging to lower stratas of society, he connected with readers on a more deeper level. ~~He was fully aware of the difference between reality and art.~~ He treated vulgarity artistically. People related to his characters and his passion made him a distinguished writer.

$$\frac{263}{3} = 87$$

Words in Passage = 263
Words in Precis = 88

Q: 3

Comprehension

Date: _____

1 - Globalization is a process by which people are being interconnected. It is making people connect economically, politically, socially and culturally. Hence, making the world a Global Society.

You are allowed to submit only one question in one pdf. The remaining questions may be submitted in separate pdfs.

2 - Electronic mass communication is the use of digital and electronic encoding of information. This involves social media, television etc. that spreads information and ideas.

3 - The term "Third World" denotes the developing countries that are in the process of becoming a developed country.

4 - Privatization is the transfer of ownership, property or business from government to the private sector.

5 - 'Liberalism' in the above context refers to the idea that countries in the wake of globalization are supporting free-trade with other countries around the world.

Date: _____

Q:7

Translation

The education system of every nation is compatible with that of the ^{nature} ~~mood~~ of its people, ~~who~~ that aids to the foundation and formation of national goals. This way, the nation stays diligent towards its required objectives. Therefore, the education system of any nation in fact builds the character, personality and the intellectual capabilities of its people. The system of education trains the citizens in such a way that they change the destiny of the nation.