

Paragraphs:-

Women's empowerment

"No nation can rise the high of glory unless unless your women side by side with you"

This saying, said by Quaid-Azam Muhammad Ali Jinnah is emphasizing the empowerment of women in every aspect of life. Unfortunately, our society is the victim of evil norms. Our women are bound between the four walls of home as a prisoner and there is no law or sanction for this deplorable condition of women in our societies. Women are facing the issues like honor killing, social harassment at work places and most importantly forced marriages. They are trapped in the cycle of exploitation. Women's having low status due to predominant society (patriarchy).

Women's getting low attention from state as well. Women are not allowed to go to schools because of fee expenses of the state make some changing in the educational system for free education. It would benefit half of population and our economy as well. It is the responsibility of the state to provide basic educational needs to every woman of Pakistan, as enshrined in the Article 25(A) of our Constitution.

The World Economic Forum's (WEF) Global gender gap report, Pakistan has been ranked 142 out of 146 countries. According to the report of Reuters Foundation, Pakistan is in 6th number in General violence and in 5th <sup>worst</sup> in terms of Domestic violence in the world. Another research in Pakistan, "Pakistan education statistics of 2021-2022" put there is 26 million children's are not going to the schools and Pakistan is in the second <sup>highest</sup> number of out-of-school-children in the world. 12 million females are deprived of education in Pakistan.

Firstly, eradication of patriarchy in the society is very important. Women will automatically get their rights if male dominance in the society is abolished.

work on basic grammar rules sentence structure is fine but need improvement in expression over all content is ok 7/10

Secondly, education system for women's in Pakistan demand some changes. More schools should be built especially for girls. Education is a powerful tool for Pakistani women and play an important role in labour market.

In conclusion, govt do its responsibilities and eradicate the outmoded social norms by making some roles. It will be the gain of the society as well as country.
