meaning is not clear

The author objects modern educationalist. who are not liking with students instead of enjoying their company they prefer not to interfering with them. if one has interfering with children like one has liking with pets they will be more responsive and follow advices without any argument. But this linking must not be based on any social endeavour and future benefits. Develops a relationship without any personal desire otherwise they will not grateful. Over-burden teachers are unable to develop such a natural relationship with students. They used harsh behaviour to control them. Try to avoid rude-behaviour and make friendliness. if they like you they must obey your rules.

too long sentence no need to explain just be to the point and precis there is no word count given at the end dear student start with simple basic easy precis cause seems like you have no idea about precis writing and rules solve simple precis of 100 to 150 words then come to past papers
