

Eagles fly against the wind

Outline

I- Introduction

Thesis Statement:

The characteristics of eagle as a majestic aviator helps one identify the real potential of being self-reliant and embodying the spirit of resilience. It symbolizes the attainment of success by overcoming insurmountable challenges and adversities by religiously following one's vision and determination.

II- Conceptualizing "Eagles fly against the wind" as a metaphor for resilience and triumph

III- Significance of flying against the wind at individual level

(a) Hard decisions change path for survival

Case in point: Challenging societal norms by Harriet Tubman

(b) Individuals confront adversity as a catalyst for success

'The gem cannot be polished without friction nor perfected without trial.' (Chinese proverb)

IV- Significance of flying against the wind at societal level

(a) Refusing to conform to societal norms marks a remarkable impact

Case in point: Malala Yousafzai's advocacy for girls education

(b) Individuals and groups challenge the status quo to create an equitable society

Case in point: Young activist, Greta Thunberg works for climate change

V- Significance of flying against the wind at political level

(a) A vision irrespective of traditional values enables a leader to attain triumph

(b) Women suffrage movement highlights an important political issue in 19th century

VI - Significance of flying against the wind at economic level

(a) Looking for a new frontier to conquer the world

Case in point: Economic reforms by Deng Xiaoping

(b) Disruption of traditional sectors in the pursuit of innovation

VII - Significance of flying against the wind at religious level

(a) Breaking the shackles of mental slavery is crucial for self-confidence

Case in point: Abandoning worldly desires

(b) Independence movement of Muslims of sub-continent against colonial administration for an Islamic country

VIII - Manifestation of obstructions in the path of those who fly against the wind

(a) Structural barriers impede progress

Case in point: Legal hurdles of Manto's writings faced by Manto to publish his views

(b) Execution for suppressing ~~bold~~ ideas
Case in point: Socrates and the Hemlock

(c) Supremacy of traditionalism

(d) Social stigma and criticism

IX. How to inculcate Eagle-like characteristics

(a) Visualize the path with purpose and determination

(b) Embrace challenges with opportunities for growth
"In the middle of difficulty lies opportunity." Albert Einstein

(c) Fostering a mindset of continuous learning with critical thinking

(d) Constructive role of educational institutions in nurturing individuals with vision

Good attempt
Keep writing

X - Conclusion