

NOA - Mock Precis and Composition

Question . 2 :

Not Evil ; Just Rejected

Villians are ^{always} wrong in movie as in film 300, in which Ephialtes betrays his king and lead Persian troops. Either Ephialtes is wrong or right is not the point of argue but should not be an antago. Spartans were born to be soldiers ^{not} and if any new born baby was physically defected, was killed. So his parents flee sparta and he secretly practice war tactics to prove himself. Finally, he lead to Leonidas and knees in front of him while seeking permission to fight ~~for~~ ⁱⁿ battle, where he was recused ~~of~~ of his inability to raise shield in defence. Author bets, if he was given a chance he would have gotten a good death, but got rejected. After all that with no chance but to join Xerxes, where he was offered all the heavy and he above all demanded for the uniform it was not his speed but Spartan rejection to lead him into other size.

Question .3:

Answer .1:

Patton was considered a controversial military figure in American military history for his aggressive tactics and outspoken views. It was his belief that United States has defeated a wrong enemy in World War II, they should have pushed straight to Moscow instead.

Answer .2:

Alan Axelrod justifies the perspective of Patton in his book "Patton: A Biography" that he believed that Soviet Union was a bigger threat to America than Nazi's Germany and United States should focus on defeating it because of its long term and dangerous threats to American freedom and Democracy.

Answer .3:

IF Patton had captured Moscow, it could have significantly altered the outcome of world war and prevented Cold War from happening.

Answer .4:

Patton was criticized for his views and his words were considered difficult to be implemented. For the reason he was considered aggressive. While his admirers acknowledge his exceptional intellectual knowledge and his way of thinking out of the limits. The text states that Patton had a view that America chose wrong enemy and defeated it while the real threat is making the country's democracy and freedom in halt. Along with this, it demonstrates the hypothetical scenario that if he ~~was~~ captured Moscow, the situation would have changed.

Answer-5:

Patton's unconventional wisdom and his ability to think ^{out} of the box is a valuable lesson for leaders of any field. Though he was a military General but he had courage to criticize states actions and give his suggestions and tolerate the consequences and criticism against himself.

Q.4:

- i) Arham said that he is not available.
- ii) Next Saturday my nephew has a party.
- iii) My Uncle arrived in Islamabad yesterday. He will stay here for a week.
- iv) It's been three weeks, that I have not seen him.
- v) My grand father grows tomatoes.
- vi) If Waseem won the lottery, he would travel a lot.
- vii) A summons was served to Naseem for speeding offence.

Q.S:A:

Bob excitedly burst into the living room, holding a peculiar gadget. "Honey, look, what! I bought a robot vacuum cleaner," he exclaimed. His wife Lisa eyed it skeptically, "You spend our savings on that!" "But it will save us time", Bob argued. As the robot whirred to life, chaos ensued. It zoomed around bumping into walls and furniture, sending objects flying. Lisa sighed, "This isn't working." Bob sheepishly admitted, "Maybe I got carried away." They erupted into laughter, realizing some messes are best cleaned up the old fashioned way - with teamwork and a trusty dustpan -

Q.S:A:

- (i) He is under my vigilance
- (ii) He died of Corona.
- (iii) He jumped off the gate.
- (iv) He is fond of reading books.
- (v) Translate the following text from English into Urdu.

(vi) Are you behind or beside the president?

(vii) He is reluctant to perform his duty.

(viii) Prop this cycle on the wall.

Q.6:A.

(i) Antic , Antique

• The principal was tired of the antics of 7th class' students.

• I was flabbergasted to see the picture of Antique piece of Ottoman empire.

(iv) Momentary , Momentous

• What I don't like is its momentary habit.

• Though it was momentous, it did not pay heed.

(vii) Compliment , Complement

• The boss paid compliment to the clerk, on his hard work

• Most of the grammatical mistakes

Student do is to miss the complement in the sentence.

(viii)

Faint

Fient

• The girl fainted after hearing the news of his parents' sudden demise

• The boxer failed to fight his opponent.

(vi) Immigrant , Emigrant

• The government allowed Afghan Immigrants for a long time.

• They were expecting a lease in Emigrant country's deadline for leaving it.

Q.6:B.

Sh.

Sarah asked Joh whether he had thought about the career path which he intend to join after graduation. Upon which, John honestly replied that he was is torn between going into finance or pursuing a career in technology. Sarah told him that both were great options, but asked what interests him in finance. John replied that he love analyzing data and predicting market trends. But, on the other hand technology offers endless opportunities for innovation and creativity. Sarah agreed that technology was constantly evolving, so he could combine his interests by working in financial technology. John cheered that it was fantastic idea because it would leverage his skills in both areas. Then he ~~payed~~ paid gratitude to Sarah. She accepted his good wills and suggested him to remember to follow his passion.

Q.7:

When Titanic sank, a billionaire John Jacob Astor was also riding into it, whose wealth in bank account was enough to manufacture thirty Titanics. However, facing life threat, he decided to save two oroid children, by leaving his place in life boat for them. He decided what was morally right. The Co owner of the grand American ^{chain} of departmental store "Macy's", Mr Esdor Estias was also travelling on Titanic. He said that, he will not enter in life boat before any male. His wife Aida Estias also refused to lay into the boat and gave her place to their maid Elen bird. She decided to spend last moments of life with her husband. Those billioners instead of compromising their morality, decided to leave their lives and wealth. Their steps in ~~pro~~ favour of ethical standards highlights the beacon of human civilization and virtous nature.

