

Precis

Examination 1980

Terrorism: A moral Phenomena

The importance we gave to terrorism is not proportional to its real importance. Terrorism kill and maim fewer people but still did not affect decision of voters of a political party. However, Public opinion takes terrorism earnest importance of terrorism lies not only in distorted and unpleasant anger but also moral claim. It is example of moral fault of willful ignorance. Terrorist gave reason for their frustration as ^{the} necessity but scientific hypothesis transfer it into surrender of their vision. There is no cause of terrorism. It is a moral event and only moral discussion can prevent it.

Total words :

words in Passage : 290

words in Precs : 91

Suggested Title :

(i) No causes ~~for~~ Terrorism