

Final Precise:

The author was planning trip in his vacations he wanted to visit place that was less crowded. On the suggestion of his friend he agreed to visit "Cherokee". He took flight to Cherokee and visited town called "Qualla Boundary", that was well known for its charming sceneries and depicts past image of Cherokee to the tourists. He find a shop there and saw many things in it. Here, he met a man "George" and was impressed with his English. The old man invited ^{him} for lunch where he told that he was woodcutter and have to do other things to meet their needs. Finally, he visited Museum where he saw many historic things. ~~He~~ After coming back to home he missed the trip and was ^{excited.} ready for next trip.

Title:

A Trip To Cherokee in Vacations.

Word limit: 120

Total Words: 128