

Q1: Paragraph Writing

Every Cloud Has a Silver Lining

Every cloud has a silver lining is a metaphor of optimism. It draw attention towards the hopefulness and happiness comes with positivity and belief. This term is focussing the minds of human towards the hardwork and keeping ourselves to follow the right path.

If silver lining of sun rays passed through the cloud it seems beautiful and there is a sense of peace and pleasing. So it teaches us a lesson about the positive ness in every aspect of life even if there comes any kind of difficulty.

In this way, <sup>man must</sup> stay calm and sharply work to achieve the goal rather than to keep dwelling ourselves into hopelessness. This is something of high importance to keep the nations grow <sup>as</sup> ~~and~~ developed societies around the world with good moral values and <sup>become</sup> respected ones. Even this term is required to bring changes in the bad systems and it has power to bring revolution among the societies and also in the countries.
