One of the primary goal of the University should be to create goodness in society. Its aim must not be to create genius or heroes in the civil population. Its aim is to create intellects in the society. Education purifies individual's mind & opinion. It develops public opinion & judgement. University education teaches how to accept right & how to discard wrong.

any heed to picturizing the landscape as they considered nature as an obstacle to progress. They considered forests as the hiding place for invaders and the breeding ground for notorious wildlife. They hated the mountains as for them, they were the causes of earthquakes. They feared nature. Mountains and forests were considered as hindrance to agriculture. When Greeks gathered in Rome for imperial purposes, they felt the dirt, smoke, dust of the urban life. This made nature a central idea in their poems.
